- NAME: Carey Bridges
 - Dates: February 21, 2025 - Friday
 - Announcement: Angela James is a legendary figure in women's ice hockey, often referred to as "the Wayne Gretzky of women's hockey." Born on December 22, 1964, in Toronto, Ontario, she was a dominant force in the sport during the 1980s and 1990s. James led the Canadian women's hockey team to four world championships and was one of the first women inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2010. She has also been recognized for her contributions to the sport with numerous honors, including being named to the Order of Hockey in Canada in 2021 and being made an Officer of the Order of Canada in 2022. Beyond her playing career, James has been involved in coaching and sports administration, and she currently serves as the co-owner and General Manager of the Toronto Six of the Premier Hockey Federation.
